MC-25
(Rev. 6/16)

INFORMATION SHEET

The Power of Attorney cannot be used to establish a new IFTA or IRP account.

A Power of Attorney is required when someone other than the IRP or IFTA account holder is given permission to conduct business on the behalf of the account holder on an established IRP or IFTA account. The Power of Attorney is a vital tool in protecting the account holder from someone conducting business in the account unknowingly. It is the responsibility of the customer to keep the Power of Attorney current. Should there be changes to your selection you must file a new MC-25 POA with Motor Carrier Services.

Motor Carrier Services will only accept the SCDMV Power of Attorney form, (SCDMV form number MC-25).

You must indicate the name of the company and individual on the line requesting Company Name and Individual Name that you are giving your permission to for conducting business on your behalf. For example, if a spouse is sent to conduct business and the spouse is not on your account, a Power of Attorney is required. If you obtain a permitting agency to conduct business for you, a Power of Attorney between you and the permitting agency is required. If an individual from your trucking company is to conduct business in the account, indicate the individual's name on the line.
