Purpose of Form

A taxpayer may use Form RD-1061 to authorize an individual or individuals to represent the taxpayer before the Georgia Department of Revenue, to discuss and/or access confidential information, and to perform certain acts on behalf of the taxpayer for certain tax matters and periods. This Power of Attorney (POA) only authorizes the listed representative(s) to perform the acts indicated in this Form RD-1061. Representatives are not authorized to endorse or otherwise negotiate any check (including accepting payment by any means) issued by the Department. However, the representative(s) may make payments on behalf of the taxpayer if specifically authorized on the Form RD-1061.

Filing Instructions

Taxpayers should submit Form RD-1061 by uploading through Georgia Tax Center (GTC) (gtc.dor.ga.gov) or by sending to the Department employee handling your inquiry.

To upload to GTC: (1) Login, (2) Under "I Want To" select "See More Links", (3) Select "Submit Power of Attorney", and (4) Follow the prompts to upload the Form RD-1061.

Revocation

If you have a valid Form RD-1061 on file with the Department, the filing of a new Form RD-1061 revokes the authority of the prior representative for the same matters and periods covered by the new Form RD-1061 unless Section 4 is completed. The prior representative is still an authorized representative and retains any previously granted authority for the matters and periods not covered by the new Form RD-1061 unless specifically revoked.

If the taxpayer or representative merely wants to revoke an existing authorization, upload a copy of the previously executed Form RD-1061 on GTC with "REVOKE" clearly written on the form. If you do not have a copy of the authorization you want to revoke, upload a statement of revocation to GTC. The statement of revocation must indicate the name of each representative whose authority is revoked. To upload a revocation on GTC follow the same steps outlined above.

Specific InstructionsSection 1 – Taxpayer Information

Enter the name, address, and contact information of the taxpayer. If the taxpayer is an individual, enter the full Social Security number (SSN). If the taxpayer is a business entity, enter the Federal Employer Identification Number (FEIN). If the taxpayer is granting access to a joint return, enter the spouse's name, address, and full SSN.

Section 2 – Representative Information

Enter the representatives' names, addresses and any applicable contact information. A representative must be an individual, not a business entity. If designating authority to more than two representatives, please attach a schedule similar in form to Section 2 signed by the taxpayer.

Section 3 – Tax Matters

Enter the tax type(s) and specific period(s) or year(s) for which the authorization is being granted. The Department will only discuss and/or disclose taxpayer information for the type(s) and period(s) listed. Notices and communications will be sent to the taxpayer, not the representative. The representative may access copies of taxpayer notices and communications via third party access to the taxpayer's account through GTC.

Section 4 – Retention/Revocation of Prior Power(s) of Attorney

All existing Form RD-1061s effective for the same matters and periods covered by this document previously filed by the taxpayer will be revoked unless the taxpayer checks the box on this line. If the taxpayer checks this box, the taxpayer must list the representative(s) previously authorized whose Form RD-1061 they wish to remain in effect. If you check the box, but do not specify a previously authorized representative, all existing Form RD-1061s will remain in effect.
