2. Exclusions from Confidential Information. The obligation of confidentiality with respect to Confidential Information will not apply to any information:

- a. If the information is or becomes publicly known and available other than as a result of prior unauthorized disclosure by the Receiving Party or any of its Representatives;
- b. If the information is or was received by the Receiving Party from a third party source which, to the best knowledge of the Receiving Party or its Representatives, is or was not under a confidentiality obligation to the Disclosing Party with regard to such information;
- c. If the information is disclosed by the Receiving Party with the Disclosing Party's prior written permission and approval;

- d. If the information is independently developed by the Receiving Party prior to disclosure by the Disclosing Party and without the use and benefit of any of the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information; or
- e. If the Receiving Party or any of its Representatives is legally compelled by applicable law, by any court, governmental agency or regulatory authority or by subpoena or discovery request in pending litigation but only if, to the extent lawful, the Receiving Party or its Representatives give prompt written notice of that fact to the Disclosing Party prior to disclosure so that the Disclosing Party may request a protective order or other remedy to prevent or limit such disclosure and in the absence of such protective order or other remedy, the Receiving Party or its Representatives may disclose only such portion of the Confidential Information which it is legally obligated to disclose.

3. Obligation to Maintain Confidentiality. With respect to Confidential Information:

- a. The Receiving Party and its Representatives agree to retain the Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party in strict confidence, to protect the security, integrity and confidentiality of such information and to not permit unauthorized access to or unauthorized use, disclosure, publication or dissemination of Confidential Information except in conformity with this Agreement;
- b. The Receiving Party and its Representatives shall adopt and/or maintain security processes and procedures to safeguard the confidentiality of all Confidential Information received by the Disclosing Party using a reasonable degree of care, but not less than that degree of care used in safeguarding its own similar information or material;
- c. Upon the termination of this Agreement, the Receiving Party will ensure that all documents, memoranda, notes and other writings or electronic records prepared by it that include or reflect any Confidential Information are returned or destroyed as directed by the Disclosing Party;
- d. If there is an unauthorized disclosure or loss of any of the Confidential Information by the Receiving Party or any of its Representatives, the Receiving Party will promptly, at its own expense, notify the Disclosing Party in writing and take all actions as may be necessary or reasonably requested by the Disclosing Party to minimize any damage to the Disclosing Party or a third party as a result of the disclosure or loss; and
- e. The obligation not to disclose Confidential Information [shall survive the termination of this Agreement, and at no time will the Receiving Party or any of its Representatives be permitted to disclose Confidential Information/remain in effect until _____ months/years from the date hereof or until the Confidential Information ceases to be a trade secret], except to the extent that such Confidential Information is excluded from the obligations of confidentiality under this Agreement pursuant to Paragraph 2 above.

4. Non-Disclosure of Transaction. Without the Disclosing Party's prior written consent, neither the Receiving Party nor its Representatives shall disclose to any other person, except to the extent, the provisions of Paragraph 2 apply: (a) the fact that Confidential Information has been made available to it or that it has inspected any portion of the Confidential Information; (b) the fact that the Disclosing Party and the Receiving Party are having discussions or negotiation concerning the Transaction; or (c) any of the terms, conditions or other facts with respect to the Transaction.

5. Representatives. Receiving Party will take reasonable steps to ensure that its Representatives adhere to the terms of this Agreement. Receiving Party will be responsible for any breach of this Agreement by any of its Representatives.

6. Disclaimer. There is no representation or warranty, express or implied, made by Disclosing Party as to the accuracy or completeness of any of its Confidential Information. Except for the matters set forth in this Agreement, neither party will be under any obligation with regard to the Transaction. Either party may, in its sole discretion: (a) reject any proposals made by the other party or its Representatives with respect to the Transaction; (b) terminate discussions and negotiations with the other party or its Representatives at any time and for any reason or for no reason; and (c) change the procedures relating to the consideration of the Transaction at any time without prior notice to the other party.

7. Remedies. Each party agrees that use or disclosure of any Confidential Information in a manner inconsistent with this Agreement will give rise to irreparable injury for which: (a) money damages may not be a sufficient remedy for any breach of this Agreement by such party; (b) the other party may be entitled to specific performance and injunction and other equitable relief with respect to any such breach; (c) such remedies will not be the exclusive remedies for any such breach, but will be in addition to all other remedies available at law or in equity; and (d) in the event of litigation relating to this Agreement, if a court of competent jurisdiction determines in a final non-appealable order that one party, or any of its Representatives, has breached this Agreement, such party will be liable for reasonable legal fees and expenses incurred by the other party in connection with such litigation, including, but not limited to, any appeals.

8. Notices. All notices given under this Agreement must be in writing. A notice is effective upon receipt and shall be sent via one of the following methods: delivery in person, overnight courier service, certified or registered mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, addressed to the party to be notified at the below address or by facsimile at the below facsimile number or in the case of either party, to such other party, address or facsimile number as such party may designate upon reasonable notice to the other party.
