Important Information for Agent

Agent's Duties

When you accept the authority granted under this power of attorney, a special legal relationship is created between you and the Principal. This relationship imposes upon you legal duties that continue until you resign or the power of attorney is terminated or revoked. You must:

- (1) do what you know the Principal reasonably expects you to do with the Principal's property or, if you do not know the Principal's expectations, act in the Principal's best interest;
- (2) act in good faith;
- (3) do nothing beyond the authority granted in this power of attorney;
- (4) disclose your identity as an Agent whenever you act for the Principal by writing or printing the name of the Principal and signing your own name as "Agent" in the following manner:

(Principal's Name) by (Your Signature) as Agent

and

- (5) to the extent reasonably practicable under the circumstances, keep in regular contact and communication with the principal.

Except as otherwise provided in the power of attorney, you must also:

- (1) not act for your own benefit;
- (2) avoid conflicts that would impair your ability to act in the Principal's best interest;
- (3) act with care, competence, and diligence;
- (4) keep a record of all receipts, disbursements, and transactions made on behalf of the Principal;
- (5) cooperate with any person who has authority to make health-care decisions for the Principal; and
- (6) not act in a manner inconsistent with the Principal's testamentary plan.

Termination of Agent's Authority

You must stop acting on behalf of the Principal if you learn of any event that terminates this power of attorney or your authority under this power of attorney. Events that terminate this power of attorney or your authority to act under it include:

- (1) death of the Principal;
- (2) the Principal's revocation of the power of attorney or your authority;
- (3) the occurrence of a termination event stated in the power of attorney;
- (4) the purpose of the power of attorney is fully accomplished; or
- (5) an action is filed with a court for your separation, annulment, or divorce from the Principal, unless the Principal otherwise provided in the power of attorney that such action will not terminate your authority.

Liability of Agent

The authority granted to you is specified in the Durable Personal Power of Attorney Act, Delaware Code, Title 12, Chapter 49A. If you violate the Act, or act outside the scope of the authority granted, you may be liable for any damages caused by your violation.

If there is anything about this document or your powers, authority, or duties as Agent that you do not understand, you should seek legal advice.
