

VERMONT SPRINGING POWER OF ATTORNEY

A Power of Attorney for Financial Affairs lets you designate someone to help you manage your money and property. You designate a person to be your "agent". You can give your agent broad powers to handle your property during your lifetime, or you can limit what your agent can do. This is your decision, and you can decide how you want your agent to act.

This document does not authorize anyone to make medical or other health care decisions for you. To do that, You need to execute an Advance Directive for health care decisions. That is a separate form you need to fill out and sign with witnesses.

This power of attorney may be revoked by you at any time. You can revoke it in writing, by telling your agent, or by tearing it up or crossing it out or any other act that shows you want it revoked. Tell your agent that you are revoking the power of attorney. You should also tell your bank and other financial institutions.

If there is anything about this form that you do not understand, you should ask a lawyer to explain it to you. This form does not provide for all options allowed by the law. You may also wish to consult a lawyer to consider other options or to ensure that your power of attorney meets your needs. This document is intended to create a general power of attorney pursuant to 14 V.S.A. '3501 et seq. with full authority to act on my behalf.

INSTRUCTIONS TO AGENT

As an agent, Vermont Law imposes duties. Agents have what is known as a “fiduciary” duty to their principals. This means that an agent must act only for the benefit of the principal.

Below is a list of duties the agent must follow.

Agent's Duties

- Take no action beyond the authority given by the power of attorney document.
- Act in good faith.
- Refrain from doing things that benefit yourself rather than the principal.
- Avoid any conflicts of interest which impair your ability to act as your agent.
- Keep your money and property separate from the principal's money and property.
- Keep records of all transactions and give the principal an accounting when the principal requests one.
- Follow any specific instructions from the principal, including an instruction forbidding an action, even if that action is authorized by the power of attorney document.
- Exercise the degree of care that would be observed by a “reasonably prudent person”.
- disclose your identity as an agent whenever you act for the principal by writing or printing the name of the principal and signing your own name as "agent" in the following manner:

_____ (Principal's Name) by _____ (Your Signature) as Agent

Termination of Agent's Authority

- Stop acting as agent immediately if the principal revokes the power of attorney or if something else happens which terminates the power of attorney.

Liability of Agent

The meaning of the authority granted to you is defined in the Vermont Statutes Annotated, Title 14, Chapter 123. If you violate the Vermont Statutes Annotated, Title 14, Chapter 123, or act outside the authority granted, you may be liable for any damages caused by your violation.

If there is anything about this document or your duties that you do not understand, you should seek legal advice.
